

Environmental Management Consulting, Inc.

Custodial/Maintenance Health & Safety Training Quiz Answers

1. What is a bloodborne pathogen?
A. A micro-organism in blood that causes disease.
2. What does it mean to use Universal Precautions?
D. Protecting yourself as if all blood and bodily fluids are infectious.
3. What is MSDS an abbreviation for?
B. Material Safety Data Sheet.
4. At a minimum, a proper label on a chemical container consists of the following two (2) items:
C. Name of the chemical; hazards of the chemical.
5. Which of the following is not always true regarding confined spaces:
B. The space has a hazard that is immediately dangerous to life and health (IDLH).
6. Confined spaces atmospheres must be tested for the following prior to entry:
C. Oxygen, Toxic Gases, Combustible Gases and Carbon Monoxide.
7. What is the definition of Lock-Out/Tag-Out?
A. The act of removing or controlling hazardous energy before work.
8. Who should have the only key to equipment that is locked/tagged out?
D. The authorized employee.
9. Asbestos fibers have the following characteristics:
D. A. and B.
10. The definition of friable asbestos is as follows:
A. Able to be crumbled by hand pressure or make to dust/powder.
11. Which of the following is not always true regarding personal protective equipment (PPE)?
C. The employee should wear PPE at all times when working.
12. Which statement is not true?
C. Impact resistant eye protection will protect against chemical vapors.

Please contact your EMC district representative with any questions that you may have.

Securing Safer Futures...

W 7748 Cty Hwy V, Lake Mills, WI 53551  920.648.6343 Fax: 920.648-4370  www.emc-wi.com