

Environmental Management Consulting, Inc.

Bloodborne Pathogens - Quiz

1. What is a bloodborne pathogen?
 - A. Micro-organism in the blood that causes disease.
 - B. An airborne virus that causes the "flu".
 - C. Blood cell count with antibodies.
 - D. A bacteria spread by mosquito's.

2. What does it mean to use universal precautions?
 - A. Disposal of blood in the regular garbage
 - B. Careful hand washing after being exposed to blood
 - C. Reporting all suspected infectious individuals
 - D. Treating all blood and bodily fluids as if everyone has everything

3. What are OPIM?
 - A. Bloodborne virus such as HIV and HBV
 - B. Bodily fluids other than blood that could infect us
 - C. Test for effectiveness of HBV vaccine
 - D. Drug used to treat HCV

4. Which of the following Hepatitis viruses are bloodborne?
 - A. HAV only
 - B. HBV only
 - C. HAV and HBV
 - D. HBV and HCV

5. Liver cancer and cirrhosis of the liver are examples of what type of infection?
 - A. Symptomatic
 - B. Transverse
 - C. Chronic
 - D. Bacterial

Name (Print): _____

Name (Sign): _____

Date Completed: _____ Score: /5

Environmental Management Consulting, Inc.

Bloodborne Pathogens - Answers

Do not show to participants:

1. A.
2. D.
3. B.
4. D.
5. C.